

MAT Recruitment - Health and Safety Policy

Health and Safety Policy Page 1 of 1

MAT Recruitment are committed to ensuring that staff are kept in a safe and healthy working environment and will make any necessary changes to said work environment where required.

We understand that the responsibility for effective Health and Safety management is that of the directors and any managers they wish to employ.

MAT Recruitment recognise that it is their duty as an employer to keep staff safe and as such they will endeavour to abide by the following rules;

- Create and maintain a safe place of work, including safe systems, equipment and environment.
- Ensure any potential hazards are identified and regularly health and safety inspections are carried out and reported.
- Give appropriate training to staff on health and safety and encourage best practice throughout the company.
- Always take appropriate measures to prevent any potential risk to employee's health and safety.

MAT Recruitment understands its obligations under the Health and Safety at work Act 1974 and will endeavour to meet all the requirements under this legislation and the rules stated above.